

2. You can restore the file to its original location or to a new location.

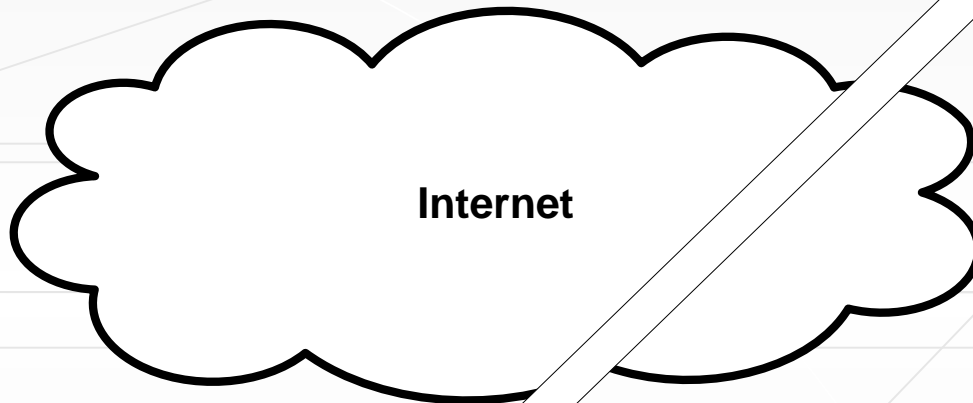

1. Access the remote backup software, search for and select the files you need to have restored.

3. The encrypted data is copied back to your system where it is decompressed and decrypted.

Amped PC Secure Server

Internet

4. You can now access the restored data.

Restore process for a home/
single-user environment.